

Engine Pro ASCS Sprints On Dirt return to Michigan for Hartford/Cherry Double

By Cody Morris

Tulsa, Oklahoma (5-28-2012) – On the heels of an action packed Memorial Holiday Weekend tripleheader against the NRA Invaders on Ohio clay, the Engine Pro ASCS Sprints On Dirt presented by ARP heads back to Michigan to visit a couple of familiar dirt ovals in the Great Lakes State.

Friday night has the Engine Pro ASCS Sprints On Dirt presented by ARP heading to Hartford Motor Speedway for the first of two SOD visits to the Hartford, Michigan $\frac{1}{2}$ mile oval this season.

Saturday night the Sprints on Dirt switch gears for the “Saturday night in the ‘Great White North’” at Cherry Raceway.

Located in Fife Lake, Michigan and voted the Engine Pro ASCS Sprints On Dirt’s favorite track in 2011, Cherry Raceway will host the first of three Engine Pro ASCS Sprints on Dirt visits to the high banked $\frac{3}{8}$ mile oval.

>From the broader view, the weekend offers up the fifth and sixth races for the Engine Pro ASCS Sprints on Dirt presented by ARP. Powering into their 33rd season of competition, the Great Lakes State leader in winged sprint car racing will feature approximately 24 nights of action this season.

Saturday night’s ‘Great White North’ event at Cherry Raceway will also feature the first MAHLE/Clevite Short Track Challenge event. The MAHLE/Clevite Short Track Challenge is comprised of eight Engine Pro ASCS Sprints on Dirt presented by ARP events on Michigan bullrings.

Friday night’s Engine Pro ASCS Sprints on Dirt presented by

ARP event at Hartford Motor Speedway begins at 8pm.
