

Engine Pro Sprints on Dirt ready for Labor Day Doubleheader

The Engine Pro Sprints on Dirt Presented by ARP will celebrate the Labor Day weekend with the continuing tradition of visiting two different Michigan race tracks to start the extended holiday weekend.

The Michigan based series celebrating its 35th season of competition will start the holiday weekend with its third visit of the season to Hartford Speedway in Hartford, MI. This \$1,300 to win event will have the best 360 sprint drivers from Michigan, Indiana and Ohio competing on the huge $\frac{1}{2}$ mile oval. A standing room only crowd is expected again after the first two trips to the southwest Michigan oval hosted near record crowds. Current point leader Ryan Ruhl from Coldwater MI will be trying to complete the Hartford clean sweep after capturing the first two features at Hartford this season.

Then on Saturday August 30, the Engine Pro Sprints on Dirt will head north to Ron Flinn's Crystal Motor Speedway for the second day of the Michigan Labor Day battle. The first two events of 2014 at the famous $\frac{3}{8}$ mile oval for the Engine Pro Sprints on Dirt presented by ARP went to Dustin Daggett in April and Randy Hannagan in July.

The 35th season of competition for the winged sprint series is winding down with only five events left to be run in 2014. For more information please go to the official series website www.sprintsondirt.com.
